Project begins
Designer responsible
Select compliance method
Prescriptive
General performance
EnerGuide
Prescriptive method
General performance
EnerGuide / program-integrated workflow
Choose SB-12 package
Designer or consultant runs model
Energy Advisor runs HOT2000 model
Design envelope
Prepare modelling summary report
EA prepares modelling outputs
Submit HOT2000 file + program records to NRCan EnerGuide system
Complete Energy Efficiency Design Summary - Prescriptive
Complete Energy Efficiency Design Summary - Performance
Prepare compliance forms for municipality
Prepare permit drawings/specs
Prepare permit drawings/specs
Submit permit package to Municipality
Submit permit package to Municipality
Submit permit package to Municipality
Municipal review begins
Check compliance path declared
Check designer signature present
Check drawings match compliance package or model inputs
Issues found?
NO
YES
Permit approved
Review comments issued to applicant
Construction begins
Designer revises drawings/forms/model
Resubmission
Design or material changes occur?
YES
Check if change affects energy compliance
YES
Update energy documentation or model
NO
NO
Submit revised documentation if required
Continue construction
Final inspections / occupancy process
EnerGuide program used?
YES
NO
EA completes final program submission & labeling
Municipality closes file